

4 Seasons - 13.04.2018

This project is for young students and they will share with other partners pictures, postcards, presentations, drawings including information about how the nature is changing along with the 4 seasons of the year in their town or near their school. It starts in April and ends in December. Students will do lots of activities and share them with each other.

